Keynote Presentations

God, the Master Storyteller
When our life story doesn't make sense to us, we have to trust God, the Master Storyteller, who knows how the story ends. We must allow Him to orchestrate all the details to bring us to where we need to be. This is Sharon's signature speech that includes her testimony of God at work behind the scenes, using her and her films in ways she never could have foreseen.

Storms Are Coming: Are You Prepared?
It's only a matter of time before storms come into our lives. Are we taking the necessary precautions of building a storm shelter, knowing where to put our faith, and getting rid of the projectiles in our lives that can pose a danger during the storm?
- Combine with other weather-themed sessions for a prayer retreat.

In the Midst of the Storms
The winds may blow and the rains pour down, but in the eye of a hurricane we can find perfect peace. As a Florida native who's weathered numerous hurricanes, Sharon Wilharm applies her many storm stories to the subject of prayer. She explains how to find that peace when the storms are raging around us.
- Combined with other weather-themed sessions for a prayer retreat.

After the Storm
Once the storm passes, we're never the same. We're stronger. We're made better. Once we weather a storm, we're called to share our story and help those who find themselves in the path of upcoming storms. Sharon illustrates the importance of sharing our stories and lighting the way for those coming behind us.
- Combine with other weather-themed session for a prayer retreat.

Pray for Rain; Carry an Umbrella
It takes faith to pray for rain during a drought, but not only must we pray, we should carry an umbrella. Sharon releases her vault of stories of God doing the impossible, then rallies the audience to gather their umbrellas and pray their own drought-defying prayers.
- Combine with other weather-themed session for a prayer retreat.

The Proverbs 31 Woman in 2019
What does Proverbs 31 have to say for today's woman? Sharon Wilharm breaks down the passage verse by verse, looking at biblical women and women from history who exhibited the Proverbs woman qualities, then following up with the relevance for contemporary women. You'll be surprised by her fresh take on a familiar topic.

Reels and Heels
Reels and Heels combines one of Sharon's movies with a talk (or series of talks) tailored specifically to your group. Themes include power of prayer, loving the unloveable, waiting for God, pass it on, and more.
Testimonials

"Sharon is AMAZING! I love hearing her speak and share. She is always full of energy and has the ability to make everyone feel at ease. I always look forward to any time I am able to share in on her studies or events!"
- Amy Edwards

"There is POWER in prayer! Thankful to be involved in the prayer retreat that Sharon lead this weekend. She was organized, prepared, encouraged interaction and presented wonderful testimonies. Most of all she encouraged all of the ladies to strengthen their prayer life and have faith that God hears and answers our prayers."
- Crystalee H.

"Sharon recently led our Ladies' Prayer Retreat. She encouraged everyone by sharing her own experiences and incorporating stories of others. She kept everyone engaged and I think we all left with a desire to develop a more powerful prayer life."
- Rhonda Beshear

"Sharon is hilarious! She shares from the heart her life experiences, all the while leading you back to Christ. She is very relatable, and easy to connect with. I loved hearing her stories about hurricanes, growing up and her life adventures. She's experienced a lot and she shares it with humor. I always look forward to hearing her speak!"
- Kim Allen

"Sharon is a wonderful speaker and writer. She has great command of the Bible and draws upon her belief in it and Christ in her speaking and writing."
- Marcia Lyons

"What a wonderful and inspiring presentation. Sharon is so encouraging. As she presented her amazing life story, her words were stirring and uplifting. How God’s plan prevailed, unfolding in her life story, was presented as comfortably as “the girl next door”---but what an awesome neighbor! How His Divine Timing for His Purpose, required patience, and how many times she had to wait for His Plan to unfold, is a common lesson for all of us to learn. Allowing God to move stepping stone pieces in place, especially using creative talents, for His Glory, has its rewards. Sharon’s easy and comfortable style in communicating with an audience, made an entertaining informative session. And her beauty shines like Light from within."
- Pamela Randolph

Sharon Wilharm is available for conferences, seminars, retreats, luncheons, and banquets. Her passion is guiding women in the power of prayer and following God’s will for our lives. She’s based in Tennessee. Contact her today to line her up for your next event.

Book Sharon Today
SharonWilharm@comcast.net
615.766.2885